The first day of the Red River War was held under threatening skies, but with the exception of a few minutes of light rain during stage 2; the weather was fine. 15 shooters braved some pretty ominous weathercasts and joined in for the festivities. Boots Fits, looking fit as a fiddle and quick as ever, took the top honors, whipping up on the locals. Dunn Dillon and Tru Wolf are shooting better and better. Tinsleep, after a considerable absence returned in great form, but was having pistol problems. Querida Kate, the doyen of the Stillwater sect, was smoking up the place and shot well. The weathercast looks better for tomorrow, DAY 2
